BOXED HOLIDAY 2025

Dear Partners,

As we enter the most meaningful season in the Crane calendar, I want to take a moment to thank you for your continued partnership—and to share what’s ahead.

This year’s holiday collection brings with it a new standard. From intricate engraving to thoughtful embellishments, our design team has created pieces that not only celebrate tradition, but elevate it. You’ll see new formats, refined palettes, and seasonal motifs inspired by our heritage—crafted to turn even the smallest gesture into a lasting impression.

With these enhancements comes a renewed focus on presentation and service. As ambassadors of the Crane name, your store experience, product knowledge, and attention to detail help ensure that each card, note, or boxed set lives up to the promise of our brand. We ask for your partnership in upholding that standard—by showcasing the full breadth of the collection, educating clients on our craftsmanship, and positioning Crane as the most thoughtful gift they can give this season.

We’re here to support you—through training, tools, merchandising guidance, and marketing. Together, we can ensure that this holiday season is not only successful, but memorable for the clients we serve.

Thank you again for your commitment to excellence.

Warmly,
Daronne Goree
Chief Revenue Officer
Crane Stationery
