WEDDINGS

First impressions are everything, and the introduction to your Big Day is no exception. Choosing the right wedding invitation does so much more than give your guests the vital information they need to attend: it sets the tone for the wedding itself.

Whether your style is contemporary, classic, or somewhere in between, your invitation should reflect the personality of your ceremony and reception. It is a statement about who you are as a couple, a chance to express your joint style and character—the essence of what makes your partnership unique.

Like you, we want every detail of your wedding to be perfect. That's why we believe in meticulously handcrafting every piece on the finest pure cotton paper. Honed from one generation to the next, our craftsmanship is the signature of Crane's legendary quality, ensuring your invitation will be treasured for decades.

THE PRESSES, THE PROCESSES, THE PEOPLE

Before the telegraph, typewriter and telephone, Crane was in the business of communication. Originating from the beautiful Berkshire Mountains of Western Massachusetts, Crane has been making luxury products for more than 200 years.

Our 100% cotton papers are still made from reclaimed cotton fibers. Cotton papers are exquisitely soft, durable, and archival. This means that your wedding invitation will look as good on your Golden Anniversary as it does on the day you say “I Do”.

Our paper is the perfect canvas for our specialty printing and embellishments. From engraving, letterpress printing, and blind embossing to thermography, flat and digital printing—we do it all, and we do it well.

Our artisans also specialize in the arts of gilding with silver and gold foil, edge painting, and much more. We are craftsmen and women who handle the details, one piece of paper at a time.
